

Please keep all rules on media regulation in place. If any changes are made, they should be to further limit the amount of media sources any one entity can own. We need more diversity of opinions -- not less.